U.S. DISTRICT COURT
N.D. OF ALABAMA

Civil Case: 4:22-CV-615-RDP

Claim of Unconstitutionality

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

COMES NOW the pro se Plaintiff, Gary Wayne Wright II (“Wright”), proceeding in forma pauperis to respectfully request the Court grant relief in the following manner:

APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

1. The Plaintiff understands he is not automatically entitled to court-appointed legal counsel in a civil matter, and so he understands why the Court denied his request for appointment of counsel upon the initiation of this lawsuit. But now that the scope and arguments of the case is more apparent to the Court, the Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court reconsider.

2. The Plaintiff still strongly believes he will prevail in this case if he is able to properly present the evidence to this Court.

3. Having a court-appointed attorney either as representation, or for the limited purposes as a legal coach, would help focus the Plaintiff’s arguments and ensure filings are proper and timely.

4. Not having legal counsel has already resulted in injury to the administration of justice, and to the Plaintiff, by being unable to properly file the preliminary relief that was needed in order to preserve the status quo.

5. Therefore, the Plaintiff in the interests in judicial efficiency and achieving justice, is respectfully asking the Court to reconsider the previously denied request for court-appointed counsel for the limited purposes of presenting this specific case.

Respectfully submitted this 27th day of September, 2022.
